You probably wouldn't expect to find high quality cushioning in a jail cell; but you probably wouldn't expect to sleep on a prison mattress in your brand new RV either. In a luxury travel trailer or fifth wheel, you deserve to have the best comfort possible while you sit, and while you sleep. The fact is that only foam cushioning can provide the best value for cushion comfort and durability. If you are not satisfied with the sitting and sleeping surfaces in your new RV, you should explore the value of foam. There is simply no comparison.
